

Working at Height

Course Description:

This working at height training course is for anyone that works at heights who need awareness of the legislation, dangers and practical steps that should be taken to reduce the risk that working at heights presents.

Course Outline:

- : What is classed as working at height

- : Work at height regulations 2005 and compliance

- : Considerations when planning work at height

- : Common causes of accidents from working at height

- : Risk Assessment

- : Reducing and controlling risk

- : Selecting the right equipment

- : Checks to ensure the equipment is in good condition

Course Duration:

1/2 Day

