

Wound Management for Nurses

Course Description:

This course is designed specifically for nurses in assessment and treatment in wound care to build your confidence and competence which will enable successful wound care treatment and planning for a person centred approach.

Course Outline:

- Understanding the components and functions of skin
- Exploring the nervous and integumentary system
- Understand the main tissue repair processes
- Identify aims of wound healing
- Describe the phases and types of wound healing
- Explore factors which affect wound healing
- Understand wound assessment processes
- Analyse data collected and select appropriate intervention
- Explore signs and symptoms
- Understand products and the goals of wound management
- Consider all holistic factors

Course Duration:

1 day

